

Braking solutions for a world in motion!

ALCO offers to market for close to 30 years a full line of brake pads available in various friction grades. Constant pressure positive moulding process is widely used ensuring O.E specs are exceeded.

ALCO M/MM Semi-Metallic series includes more than 1500skus covering all Import and domestic applications, Shimmed, Chamfered and slotted they contains high grade steel fibres for a constant braking power and extended life. Priced competitively they are a perfect choice for a noise free, trouble free entry level product.

ALCO CM/HDM Carbon composite Semi-Metallic series includes more than 1000skus covering most import and domestic application in automotive, medium and heavy trucks. Designed as a long life severe duty product our Carbon composite line will offer that extra capability to withstand EXTREME high temperature while offering an unmatched braking power and high mileage capability.

ALCO TCX True ceramic formulation series is over 700skus includes all OE ceramic applications and most domestic and import applications. Truly quiet it is manufactured only with premium raw material excluding all ferrous material to ensure maximum silent service life and efficiency. Chamfered, slotted and includes premium nitrile multilayer shim. Same process as OE leader manufacturer is used to produce our TCX virtually eliminating brake in period.

ALCO B series Bonded brakes shoes are available for virtually any vehicle type make/model including emergency brakes, manufactured only from premium non asbestos organic material ensuring a noise free long service life. ALCO use exclusive true fit machinery ensuring an unmatched perfect fit 100% of the time. They are available as ZERO FOOT print remanufactured boomerang cores program or simply with our Outright no cores program which is virtually the same product. ALCO is proud to be the ONLY manufacturer in Canada to offer a clean for environment core program.

ALCO R series Riveted brakes shoes are available in about 300skus for heavier vehicle, Manufactured only from premium specific non asbestos organic material ensuring a noise free long service life. ALCO use exclusive true fit machinery ensuring an unmatched perfect fit 100% of the time. They are available as ZERO FOOT print remanufactured boomerang cores program or simply with our Outright no cores program which is virtually the same product. ALCO is proud to be the ONLY manufacturer in Canada to offer a clean for environment core program.

ALCO also offer a full line of friction products including bonded segments, riveted segments and the most diversified line of friction products for automotive, motorcycle, trucks, mining, energy, on road and off road in finished products or raw material form products.

